II. CAKE RECOGNITION: (Catching a Kid Excelling)

The following students will be recognized as September's CAKE students.

Augusta Elementary: Reagan Dicks – Reagan is an extremely responsible student. She comes to school prepared each and every day, has a positive attitude, works hard, and looks out for those around her. I have witnessed Reagan talking with peers who are having a bad day. She gives them strategies and advice on how to work through various problems. Reagan loves volunteering to read for the kindergarten classroom that she is mentoring this year and enjoys writing them letters or making pictures for them. She is not only a role model for her grade level peers, but one for all of the students and staff in our building.

Capon Bridge Elementary: Kayleigh Potter: Kayleigh demonstrates the three "R's" daily. She is always respectful, responsible, and ready to learn. Her enthusiasm for learning elevates the classroom atmosphere, motivating and encouraging her peers in a positive way. Kayleigh gives 100% of herself to every task, big or small. Her spirit is contagious. She always has a smile and a kind word to say.

Slanesville Elementary: Colten Pyles: Colten is always respectful and kind to other students and staff. He is reliable and responsible. He is always on task and aware of everything going on around him. Colton is a leader in academics!

Romney Elementary: Kaylin Moreland – Kaylin is a very responsible student. You can depend on her to make the right choice, help others, and try her best in all tasks. She is a great role model for other class teammates in all that she does, and I know that if there was ever a time when a situation arose that we needed student leaders to help out, Romney Elementary could have full confidence in her ability to shine.
