Regular Meeting

III. CAKE PRESENTATION: (Catching A Kid Excelling)

The following students were recognized:

Augusta Elementary – Benjamin Riggleman - Ben works extremely hard every day and wants to succeed. He is a nice young man who is helpful to others. He takes pride in his academic growth and supports his many friends with affirmations and encouragement.

Capon Bridge Elementary: Braxton Swain – Braxton is a hardworking and conscientious student. He is very motivated to learn new things and he always has a positive attitude. He wants to improve and is willing to put in the effort for any task he completes. He is very helpful to his teachers and classmates.

Romney Elementary: Lacy Rineer – Lacy always offers help to her teachers and classmates without expecting anything in return. She always tries her best and genuinely cares about learning.

Slanesville Elementary: Tinley Thorne – Tinley is focused and works hard every single day. She is always willing to help her peers with anything and everything. She's a great kid and student.

Springfield-Green Spring Elementary: Kaylee Bidinger - Hampshire County, remember this name. This young lady is going to accomplish a great deal in the coming years. She is truly an exceptional student, always perfecting her work and going above and beyond in every class. She's also very kind, thoughtful and helpful to all her classmates and her teachers. Outside of school, she is an extraordinary athlete and participates in many activities. Soccer, gymnastics, and karate are just some of the extracurricular activities in which she excels. Kaylee is a blessing to our school, and we are all excited to see what she will accomplish in her future.

Capon Bridge Middle:

6th Grade: Alivia Dice – Alivia loves to sing. She enjoys Christian rock music and really likes the group "For King and Country." Her other hobby is running. She ran for the Bobcats for her first year in cross country. Her favorite teachers are Mr. Largent and Mr. Potter. She doesn't know what she wants to be yet, but right now she is a great kid.

7th Grade: Ameilia Garrett – Ameilia really loves volleyball. She is also a member of Girl Scouts and the softball team for her age group. She loves baking cookies especially chocolate chip. Her favorite subject is English with Mr. Szabo who is her favorite teacher.

8th Grade: Sarah Cates – Sarah really enjoys art and being outside. She loves riding bikes and playing with her younger sister, Kaitlyn. Her favorite class is art with Mr. Anderson. She is excited about helping with the Spring dance.

Romney Middle:

6th Grade: Liberty Crites – Liberty has been courteous, polite, on track with keeping on top of her studies and a hard worker.

7th Grade: Zachary Malcolm – Zachary is a hard worker and loves to help the teachers and his peers in and out of the classroom. He has been an excellent student and puts thought and effort into his work. He is an exceptional student.

8th Grade: Hailey Michael – Hailey is a very active student at RMS. She plays volleyball and basketball. She is a hard worker, both in the classroom and out. Hailey is very helpful to her teachers and her classmates. She is always respectful to others and is a great role model.

Hampshire High:

9th Grade: Branson Moore – Branson enters the class first thing in the morning eager to learn and with a positive attitude. He maintains excellent grades while being involved in Band, Ag and soccer.

10th Grade: Olivia Baxter – Olivia is a kind, hard-working student who is as bright as she is ambitious. She is always willing to help her peers, makes strong contributions to group discussions and always completes high-quality work. She is honest, spirited and brings a positive attitude everywhere she goes. Olivia embodies the characteristics we want to see in all Trojan students and is truly a joy to have in class.

11th Grade: Emily Arellano – Emily is a huge asset to the school CWST program at HHS. She is a leader and self-starter who will take on extra responsibilities to get the job done. She often acts as a project manager to complete orders for Mrs. Crites' class.

12th Grade: Levi Richman – Levi is a hard-working, nice young man who is very involved in school activities and wrestling. He always works well and is pleasant and polite. He is a great wrestler and is a huge asset to the team.
