IMPORTANT STEPS:

1. Find schools/colleges that interest you. Start the application process and research their financial aid information. Most schools will have the information online or in a brochure that you can request to be mailed to you for free.
2. Complete the FAFSA (Federal Application for Student Aid) www.fafsa.ed.gov You must complete your 2015 taxes before you can complete the FAFSA.
3. Apply for local and national scholarships. Most of the local scholarships will be listed in the guide or on our guidance website. Applications are available in the guidance office. Pay careful attention to deadlines and instructions. Each scholarship will have a variety of different requirements.
4. All students should create an account on CFWV (College Foundation of West Virginia) www.cfwv.com. This website is a fantastic resource for career planning, interest inventories, college searches, and scholarships. There are over a million scholarships available to West Virginia students that can be accessed from this site. It has an easy to use search feature to help you narrow down the information that is most relevant to you.

Note: Promise Scholarship application is through this website.

*This guide has been prepared for you to help you gain access to resources that can help you with funding for college. The scholarships listed here are only a portion of what is available nationwide. For updates and listings of additional scholarships, visit our county website. Click on schools, Hampshire High School, School Counselors. There will be a link to Scholarships on this page.

FAFSA INFO

Deadlines: March 1st, 2017(Promise & Priority Consideration)

April 15, 2017 (WVHE Grant Program – Priority Consideration)

Financial Assistance Available from filling out the FAFSA:

GRANTS:

Federal Pell Grant

A Federal Pell Grant, unlike a loan, does not have to be repaid. Pell Grants are awarded usually only to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's or a professional degree. (In some cases, however, a student enrolled in a post-baccalaureate teacher certification program might receive a Pell Grant.) Pell Grants are considered a foundation of federal financial aid, to which aid from other federal and nonfederal sources might be added.

TEACH Grant Program

Through the College Cost Reduction and Access Act of 2007, Congress created the Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant Program that provides grants of up to $4,000 per year to students who intend to teach in a public or private elementary or secondary school that serves students from low-income families. If, after reading all of the information on this fact sheet, you are interested in learning more about the TEACH Grant Program, you should contact the financial aid office at the college where you will be enrolled.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

The Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) program is for undergraduates with exceptional financial need. Pell Grant recipients with the lowest expected family contributions (EFCs) will be considered first for a FSEOG. Just like Pell Grants, the FSEOG does not have to be repaid.

Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG)

The Academic Competitiveness Grant was made available for the first time for the 2006-2007 school year for first-year college students who graduated from high school after January 1, 2006, and for second-year college students who graduated from high school after January 1, 2005.

Institutional Grants

There are other grants in addition to ours. Colleges provide institutional grants to help make up the difference between college costs and what a family can be expected to contribute through income, savings, loans, and student earnings.

Other institutional grants, known as merit awards or merit scholarships, are awarded on the basis of academic achievement. Some merit awards are offered only to students whose families demonstrate financial need; others are awarded without regard to a family's finances.

Some grants come with special privileges or obligations. You'll want to find out about the types of grants awarded by each college you are considering.

Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant

Beginning with the 2010-11 award year, a student who is not eligible for a Pell Grant but whose parent or guardian was a member of the U.S. Armed Forces and died as a result of service performed in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001 may be eligible to receive the Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant.

LOANS:

Direct Stafford Loans

Direct Stafford Loans, from the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program, are low-interest loans for eligible students to help cover the cost of higher education at a four-year college or university, community college, or trade, career, or technical school. Eligible students borrow directly from the U.S. Department of Education (the Department) at participating schools.

Direct Stafford Loans include the following types of loans:

Direct Subsidized Loans—Direct Subsidized Loans are for students with financial need. Your school will review the results of your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSASM) and determine the amount you can borrow. You are not charged interest while you're in school at least half-time and during grace periods and deferment periods.

Direct Unsubsidized Loans—You are not required to demonstrate financial need to receive a Direct Unsubsidized Loan. Like subsidized loans, your school will determine the amount you can borrow. Interest accrues (accumulates) on an unsubsidized loan from the time it's first paid out. You can pay the interest while you are in school and during grace periods and deferment or forbearance periods, or you can allow it to accrue and be capitalized (that is, added to the principal amount of your loan). If you choose not to pay the interest as it accrues, this will increase the total amount you have to repay because you will be charged interest on a higher principal amount.

Direct PLUS Loans for Parents

Parents of dependent students may apply for a Direct PLUS Loan to help pay their child's education expenses as long as certain eligibility requirements are met. Graduate and professional students may apply for PLUS Loans for their own expenses.

WORK PROGRAMS:

Federal College Work-Study – The Federal College Work-Study Program provides jobs for undergraduates and graduate students who need financial aid. The institutional aid office may assign recipients to employment on campus or with non-profit public and private agencies. The aid officer determines eligibility for work-study assistance and the amount each student may earn under this program. A participant will be paid at least the current Federal minimum wage.

PROMISE SCHOLARSHIP

Application is online at the CFVW website (<https://secure.cfvw.com/>).

The PROMISE scholarship is a merit-based financial aid program, which means students who reach certain academic goals are eligible to receive funds to help pay for college. Eligible 2017 high school graduates will receive annual awards up to $4,750 to cover the cost of tuition and mandatory fees at public or independent institutions in West Virginia

Scholarship Eligibility

MINIMUM HIGH SCHOOL GRADE POINT AVERAGE REQUIREMENTS

CORE CUMULATIVE

3.0

A student must graduate with a minimum 3.0 grade point average, or whatever is locally considered a "B" average, in both the core courses and overall coursework (weighted grades may be used). The core grade point average includes all core courses, but does not include electives. GED/home-schooled students must attain a 2500 minimum score on the GED for scholarship consideration.

MINIMUM TEST SCORE REQUIREMENTS

ACT (national test only)		SAT (reasoning test only)
Section	Score	Section	Score
Composite	22	Combined Score	1100
English	20	Critical Reading	540
Mathematics	20	Mathematics	510
Science	20
Reading	20

ACT/SAT scores must be from a national test administration and cannot be combined from multiple test administrations. In addition, the ACT and/or SAT writing portion will not be used in calculating minimum combined scores. Students should also read the complete list of PROMISE Scholarship Eligibility Requirements. This list also outlines eligibility requirements and application procedures for home-schooled students.

Timeline for the Class of 2017

October 1, 2016

The PROMISE Scholarship Application (Application for State-Level Financial Aid Programs) has been posted on cfv.wv.gov.

October 1, 2016

The 2016-17 FAFSA will be available on www.fafsa.ed.gov .

MARCH 1, 2017: PROMISE Application

- Students must complete the PROMISE Scholarship Application (Application for State-Level Financial Aid Programs) by this date. Students may use their eighth semester (typically the spring semester of their senior year) grades to achieve PROMISE eligibility (3.0 GPA in the core classes and overall), but must apply by March 1st.
- In order to be considered for the PROMISE Scholarship, the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must be received by the Federal Student Aid Processing Center on or before March 1, 2011, and meet the conditions for processing.

APRIL 2017

Initial award letters are mailed to PROMISE Scholars.

JUNE 3, 2017: SAT

Last date to take the SAT to establish scholarship eligibility (reasoning test only). Scores will not be accepted for any SAT taken after June 3, 2017.

JUNE 10, 2017: ACT

Last date to take the ACT (national test only) to establish scholarship eligibility. Scores will not be accepted for any ACT taken after June 10, 2017.

Renewal Requirements

Scholars are not required to reapply to the scholarship yearly. Scholarships are automatically renewed if students meet the renewal requirements at the end of a year of enrollment. Scholars may use subsequent summer sessions at their own cost to obtain GPA and/or credit hour renewal requirements.

Eligibility for renewal is determined by the scholar's institution at the end of a year of scholarship utilization, based on first-time semester enrollment. For example: Scholars enrolling in their first semester of college during the fall semester will have the fall, spring, and summer semesters to meet the renewal requirements. Scholars enrolling in their first semester of college during the spring semester are considered "off track" and will have the spring, summer and fall semesters to meet renewal requirements.

GPA: First year scholarship recipients must maintain an overall GPA of a 2.75 at the end of their first year of scholarship utilization. Thereafter, an overall GPA of 3.0 is required for renewal.

Hours: A minimum of 30 credit hours must be obtained in a year of enrollment for renewal.

Any college credits earned prior to the first semester of enrollment are not considered when determining the student's eligibility for renewal of the scholarship. Only credits and grades earned beginning with the first semester of college enrollment after high school graduation will count when determining renewal eligibility.

Please remember that students who lose their PROMISE scholarship will not be able to regain it at a later time. Students should also read the complete list of renewal requirements for college students.

Summer Awards

Summer awards are available on a limited basis to students eligible for scholarship continuation at the end of the academic year. For more information, please contact the PROMISE Scholarship Office at (888) 825-5707.

Community Service for PROMISE Scholarship Applicants

Applicants for PROMISE Scholarship awards are strongly urged to perform at least 20 hours of unpaid community service while in high school and college. The community service may include, but is not limited to, participating with non-profit, governmental, institutional or community-based organizations designed to improve the quality of life for community residents, meet the needs of community residents or foster civic responsibility.

HHS SCHOLARSHIPS

The following in house scholarships are available to graduating seniors of Hampshire High School. One application (HHS application) will be submitted by April 1, 2017 to qualify.

The HHS Scholarship application is available in guidance and on our website.

FINANCIAL AID FACT SHEET

FOR ALL WEST VIRGINIA STUDENTS ATTENDING COLLEGE IN THE 2017-18 ACADEMIC YEAR

FEDERAL PELL GRANT

The Federal Pell Grant is a need-based grant awarded to students who demonstrate financial need. Award amounts are based on your family's financial situation and your enrollment status.

Basic program requirements: Students must:

- Complete and submit the FAFSA;
- Demonstrate financial need.

To apply: The 2017-18 FAFSA will be available at www.fafsa.gov on Oct. 1, 2016. For a complete list of requirements, visit www.studentaid.gov.

Award amount: $590 to $5,815 for the 2016-17 academic year.

WEST VIRGINIA HIGHER EDUCATION GRANT

The WV Higher Education Grant Program is a need-based financial aid program for WV students. Awards are based on demonstrated financial need (as determined by the information students provide on the FAFSA).

Program requirements: Students must:

- Be a citizen of the United States;
- Be a WV resident for at least 12 months prior to applying;
- Be a high school graduate or have earned a GED or TASC diploma;
- Complete the FAFSA and demonstrate a certain level of financial need;
- Demonstrate academic promise;
- Enroll as a full-time undergraduate student at a participating institution;
- Have not previously earned a bachelor's degree.

To apply: You must complete and submit the FAFSA by April 15, 2017.

Award amount: The award amount varies each year. Maximum annual awards for the 2016-17 academic year were $2,700.

Can be used at: The award can be used at eligible institutions within WV and PA. For a complete list of eligible institutions, visit www.cfww.com.

PROMISE SCHOLARSHIP

The WV PROMISE Scholarship Program is a merit-based financial aid program available to WV residents who meet certain academic standards.

Academic requirements: Students must:

- Have both a core and cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher*
- Meet the minimum test score requirements on either the ACT or the SAT.

* Must achieve a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale or whatever is considered a "B" average, based on county grading policies in both the core courses and overall coursework (weighted grades may be used). The core GPA includes all core courses, but does not include electives. For a complete list of courses, visit www.cfww.com/promise. Eligible home-schooled students must attain a minimum score on the GED or TASC to qualify.

Award amount: Eligible applicants will receive annual awards up to $4,750 to cover the cost of tuition and mandatory fees at eligible institutions in WV.

To apply: Go to www.cfww.com/promise and create a WV Student Aid Management (WVSAM) account. Log in to your WVSAM account and submit the PROMISE application before March 1. You must also submit the FAFSA by March 1. For additional information, visit www.cfww.com/promise.

Deadlines:

- March 1, 2017: Students must submit the PROMISE Scholarship application available online at www.cfww.com/promise and the 2017-18 FAFSA available at www.fafsa.gov.
- June 3, 2017: Last day to take the SAT to establish eligibility.

-June 10, 2017: Last day to take the ACT to establish eligibility.

Renewal requirements: The PROMISE Scholarship will be renewed automatically if the scholar has a minimum overall 2.75 GPA on completed college coursework at the end of the first 12-month period of enrollment. Thereafter, a 3.0 cumulative GPA is required. A student must also earn 30 credit hours over each 12-month period of enrollment to be considered for renewal.

 A student may use the subsequent summer term at his or her expense to complete the 30-hour credit or GPA requirements. All credits and grades earned starting with the fall semester after high school graduation count toward eligibility for the PROMISE Scholarship. Please remember that students who lose their PROMISE Scholarship will NOT be able to regain it at a later time.

ENGINEERING, SCIENCE, AND TECHNOLOGY SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic qualifications and interest in the science, engineering, and technology fields. Priority is given to WV residents.

Program requirements: Students must:

- Be a United States citizen or resident alien;
- Complete the application available at www.cfwv.com by March 1, 2017;
- Agree to work full-time in an engineering, science, or technology field in WV for one year for each year the scholarship was received.*

To apply: Submit an application by March 1, 2017. The application will be posted by Oct. 1, 2016 at www.cfwv.com.

Award amount: Not to exceed $3,000 per academic year.

* Students who fail to meet the work requirements are required to repay the scholarship received plus interest and any required collection fees. In extreme circumstances, a student may be approved to substitute community service related to engineering, science, or technology in place of the work requirement.

UNDERWOOD-SMITH TEACHER SCHOLARSHIP

The Underwood-Smith Teacher Scholarship Program was created to enable and encourage students to pursue teaching careers at the preschool, elementary, middle, or secondary school level. Undergraduate and graduate scholarships are awarded based on academic qualifications and interest in teaching.

Program requirements: Students must:

- Be a WV resident;
- Complete the application available at www.cfwv.com by March 1, 2017;
- Agree to teach at a preschool, elementary, middle, or secondary school in WV for up to two years for each year of scholarship assistance.*

To apply: Submit an application by March 1, 2017. The application will be posted by Oct. 1, 2016 at www.cfwv.com.

Award amount: Not to exceed $5,000 per academic year.

* Students who fail to meet the teaching or alternative service requirements are required to repay the scholarship received plus interest and required collection fees. In extreme circumstances, a student may be approved to substitute an alternative work program in place of the standard requirement. For a complete list of service requirements, visit www.cfwv.com.

UNDERWOOD-SMITH TEACHER LOAN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Individuals who are contracted by a public school in West Virginia to teach full-time are eligible to receive up to a $3,000 reimbursement on payments toward student loans in exchange for teaching two years in either a high-need field or a high-need geographic location in WV. To learn more, visit www.cfwv.com.

How to create an

FSA ID

The FSA ID – a username and password – has replaced the Federal Student Aid PIN and must be used to log in to certain U.S. Department of Education websites. Your FSA ID confirms your identity when you access your financial aid information and electronically sign Federal Student Aid documents. If you do not already have an FSA ID, you can create one when logging in to fafsa.gov, the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS®) at www.nsls.ed.gov, StudentLoans.gov, StudentAid.gov, and Agreement to Serve (ATS) at www.teach-ats.ed.gov.

Step 1 When logging in to one of the websites listed above, click the link to create an FSA ID.

Tip: Important: Only the owner of the FSA ID should create and use the account. Never share your FSA ID.

Step 2 Create a username and password, and enter your e-mail address.

Step 3 Enter your name, date of birth, Social Security number, contact information, and challenge questions and answers.

Step 4 If you have a Federal Student Aid PIN, you will be able to enter it and link it to your FSA ID. You can still create an FSA ID if you have forgotten or do not have a PIN.

Step 5 Review your information, and read and accept the terms and conditions.

Step 6 Confirm your e-mail address using the secure code, which will be sent to the e-mail address you entered when you created your FSA ID. Once you verify your e-mail address, you can use it instead of your username to log in to the websites.

You can use your FSA ID to sign a FAFSA right away. Once the Social Security Administration verifies your information in one to three days, or if you have linked your PIN to your FSA ID, you will be able to use your FSA ID to access the websites listed above. For help, visit StudentAid.gov/fsaid.
